

Loss-function diagnosis separates whole-event ambiguity from segment-level CSR support

Clean rainfall-associated SMDEs often remain mixed at the event level, while adaptive segmentation extracts interpretable regime-specific construction pools.

